ABOUT ME

I am a detail-oriented creative with a strong foundation in both user experience and graphic design. I have over three years of combined experience in design and retail sales in collaborative environments and I am currently working as a junior graphic designer at Easy2C. Experienced at conceptualising and executing user-centred design solutions, with advanced skills in Adobe Creative Suite and Figma.

I have always been creative at heart; my interests span across fashion, graphic design, and digital media, and I'm passionate about exploring new creative outlets to elevate my work. I've developed strong initiative and flexibility from my range of work environments, and I am always willing to learn new skills and make a valuable contribution to the team.
